

PUBLIC SAFETY

Community Safety Advisory Commission

The Cowichan Valley Regional District (CVRD) is accepting applications from residents interested in serving as a member of the Community Safety Advisory Commission for a term ending December 2018. There is currently one opening on the Commission for a public member.

The Commission advises the Board on community safety issues of regional, sub-regional and interagency importance. The Commission has a leading role in providing advice and support to safer communities' initiatives across the region.

Residents interested in volunteering their time to sit as a member of the Commission should submit a letter of application to Conrad Cowan, Manager of Public Safety, by mail at 175 Ingram Street, Duncan, BC V9L 1N8 or by email to ccowan@cvrd.bc.ca. For more information call Public Safety at 250.746.2562 or toll free 1.800.665.3955.

Please include in the letter of application: name, address, postal code, home and/or business telephone number, email address, history of community involvement, other relevant history, technical or special expertise, and reasons for seeking appointment.
