Breakout Sessions 1

Friday 8:15 pm - 9:15 pm	Early Childhood Education / Education	Physical Literacy / Active For Life	Sport
	Breakout Session A Topic: Unwrapping Bubble-Wrapped Kids Canadian children have been coddled, driven and bubble-wrapped for the past few decades in response to fears of 'what could happen' and in our efforts to ensure children are always safe. Our focus on safety first, even in play has had unintended consequences which we are starting to realize. Changing behaviour is difficult and takes collective effort by our entire community including service providers, parents, care-givers, teachers, regulators and children. We will explore the importance of self-directed and risky play and what we can do to ensure all children have the best possible play opportunities. Speaker: Heather Turner	Breakout Session C Topic: Safe and Active Participation This session presents the role of physical and health literacy in enhancing the durability of people (mentally, physically and socially) so as to minimize immediate injury (fractures, concussions, ACL, etc.) at the same time as foster activity and social connection. Speaker: Dr. Dean	Breakout Session E Topic: Quality Sport and Physical Literacy in Long Term Athlete Development Winning, development, FUN! How does a quality sport program balance these concepts? Through the Long Term Athlete Development model every sport organization has a blueprint for guiding parents and coaches on how to make their sport experience appropriate to every child's age and stage of development. Discussion will include practical examples of how to implement sport specific LTAD's at the local level. Speaker: Drew Cooper, PacificSport
		Breakout Session D Topic: Developing Physical Literacy through Dance DANCEPL3Y is the world leader in developing physical literacy through dance. Come experience our high-energy program as you learn simple moves from a variety of music styles (Hip Hop, Urban, Ballroom, Bollywood, Jazz/Funk) and practice your fundamental movement skills to sports themed songs! This workshop will teach you how to target all four Elements of Physical Literacy (physical, affective, cognitive and behavioral) using dance! Speaker: DANCEPL3Y	To register, call your local recreation centre with your selected sessions and course code 9244. Cowichan Lake Recreation 250.749.6742 Island Savings Centre 250.748.7529 Kerry Park Recreation Centre 250.743.5922
